Your Associate Membership and the Canadian Junior Golf Association

Many do not know that the the Canadian Junior Golf Association is a not-for-profit "registered Canadian amateur athletic association" (RCAAA) with Revenue Canada and contributions to the Canadian Junior Golf Association are tax deductible by individuals and corporations alike. Funds contributed to the Canadian Junior Golf Association assist our youth in many ways through competition, mentor programs, clinics, and camps. The Canadian Junior Golf Association also plays an important role with our youth through education and learning by providing co-op programs and internships with community colleges and universities.

The Associate Membership is designed for those who wish to see and support the Canadian Junior Golf Association as it grows its programs in Canada.

It takes a great deal of planning and time to develop a program to assist our youth through participation in the sport of golf. The Canadian Junior Golf Association recongnizes that the future of our Country lies with our youth. Their success will be determined by the efforts we make today to develop the character, maturity and personal growth that will enable them to take their rightful place in a highly competitive international environment. Our primary goal is provide our youth, regardless of their economic means, the opportunity to develop such skills, thus, helping to build a strong future for Canada through and for its youth.

Each year the Canadian Junior Golf Association supports hundreds of young people play the game of golf and we are looking for your help.
