Mission Statement

The Canadian Junior Golf Association (CJGA) is dedicated to developing Canada's junior golfers by offering basic instruction to the beginning golfer and high level competition to the more advanced through regional, provincial, national and international events. The CJGA brings excellence to junior golf as a sport through opportunities and fellowship.

Canadian Junior Golf Association

The Canadian Junior Golf Association (CJGA) is a "registered Canadian amateur athletic association" (RCAAA) not-for-profit registered federally with Revenue Canada.

Through its six-stage competitive development program that focuses on tournaments, clinics, international competitions, and mentoring programs with PGA Tour professionals, the CJGA introduces the game to juniors as young as five and offers competitive multi-day events for the more advanced golfer. The CJGA acts as a feeder system to provincial and national competitions, collegiate and university golf, as well as professional and recreational golf. For more information please visit www.cjga.com.

The Canadian Junior Golf Association is generously supported by its National Partner, Freedom 55 Financial, which provides financial security advice and planning for Canadians.
