The CJGA World Junior Challenge, now in its 27th year, is one of the marquee events conducted by the Canadian Junior Golf Association.

Since the inaugural tee off in 1993, the CJGA World Junior Challenge has seen thousands of Junior golfers, representing over 30 countries, pitted against one another in a friendly, yet competitive environment held at some of Florida's most prolific golf courses.

This highly recognized event, held during the winter holiday season, December 27-30, offers junior golfers the opportunity to compete in an internationally ranked tournament while experiencing the culture of Florida golf and bonding with junior golfers from around the World.

Individual Stroke Play Championship

The CJGA World Junior Challenge is an individual stroke play event. Juniors will compete in their respective age divisions for individual honors. Individual Entry fee is $399.00 USD.
