The CJGA World Junior Championship, now in its 35th year, is one of the marquee events in the World and is conducted by the Canadian Junior Golf Association.

Since the inaugural tee off in 1993, the CJGA World Junior Championship has seen thousands of Junior golfers, representing over 30 countries, pitted against one another in a friendly, yet competitive environment held at some of Florida's most prolific golf courses.

This highly recognized event, held during the winter holiday season, December 27-30, offers junior golfers the opportunity to compete in an internationally ranked tournament while experiencing the culture of Florida golf and bonding with junior golfers from around the World.

Caddies

Caddies will be permitted in both the Amateur/Junior Divison (24) and the Linkster Division (U15). Caddies also will be responsible for pace of play. Note: For those playing in the U19 or U15 division, their caddie cannot be a Parent or Guardian.

Individual Stroke Play Championship

The CJGA World Junior Championship is an individual stroke play event. Juniors will compete in their respective age divisions for individual honors.

Individual Entry fee is $599.00 USD for Juniors/Amateurs (U24) /$400.00 USD for Linksters (U15).

Tournament Registration
